

Forest Town Nature Conservation Group

Telephone (01623) 640134 (Shlomo Downen, Chair)

E-mail: shlomo.downen@gmail.com

Website: <http://www.foresttown.net/nature/>

and <https://www.facebook.com/FTNCG>

Forest Town Nature
Conservation Group

Registered Charity
No. 1157957

Forest Town Nature Conservation Group

Telephone (01623) 640134 (Shlomo Downen, Chair)

E-mail: shlomo.downen@gmail.com

Website: <http://www.foresttown.net/nature/>

and <https://www.facebook.com/FTNCG>

Forest Town Nature
Conservation Group

Registered Charity
No. 1157957

The Forest Town Community Council handing over a cheque for FTNCG's successful appeal to buy Spa Ponds

Forest Town Nature Conservation Group works to improve Forest Town's wildlife sites, including Spa Ponds and Rushpool Open Space.

FTNCG is run by volunteers and funded through donations.

The Forest Town Community Council handing over a cheque for FTNCG's successful appeal to buy Spa Ponds

Forest Town Nature Conservation Group works to improve Forest Town's wildlife sites, including Spa Ponds and Rushpool Open Space.

FTNCG is run by volunteers and funded through donations.

Photo of a Kingfisher at Spa Ponds by Tim King

FTNCG's Spa Ponds Nature Reserve:

- Free to access, and open to the public (walkers, cyclists and horse riders)
- Main entrance off Clipstone Drive, opposite White Gates pub (Forest Town)
- Medieval fishing ponds, with links to King John's Palace (Kings Clipstone) and Clipstone Park
- Wildlife includes: water vole, birds, toads, damselflies and dragonflies

Photo of a Kingfisher at Spa Ponds by Tim King

FTNCG's Spa Ponds Nature Reserve:

- Free to access, and open to the public (walkers, cyclists and horse riders)
- Main entrance off Clipstone Drive, opposite White Gates pub (Forest Town)
- Medieval fishing ponds, with links to King John's Palace (Kings Clipstone) and Clipstone Park
- Wildlife includes: water vole, birds, toads, damselflies and dragonflies